

Welcome to your weekly addition of the Chippewa Chatter! We are looking forward to sharing with you the latest and greatest in the 4-H world in weekly updates.

The Cloverbud Connect Zoom program is here! The next program will be offered on Saturday, April 17 at 9:30 am. Cloverbuds from around Chippewa County can engage in a Cloverbud project meeting using the WI 4-H Cloverbud curriculum developed by Monica Lobenstein. Please register here to receive the Zoom link for the program: Cloverbud Connect.

This month's project will be marbling art! An email will be sent to all Cloverbuds with the supply list.

The Chippewa County 4-H Rabbit Project will be offering its' annual workshop on Saturday, May 1 from 9 am until noon at the Howard Town Hall. Youth will learn about: picking a rabbit, breeds, proper care, diseases and more! Plan on attending this educational workshop as valuable support will be provided to help youth in their project and exhibiting at local fairs! The program is free to 4-Hers and please plan on registering by Wednesday, April 28 here: <https://forms.gle/kx4TQddC9M4hPN3k8>

Chippewa County 4-H camp registration will be delayed until Tuesday, April 27. 4-H Staff will be receiving summer information this week and will make appropriate decisions based on the guidance.

In order to effectively plan for the safe return of youth to camp, we appreciate your patience in opening registration! Please save the dates of July 18-21

The Foods Revue will be held on Sunday, May 2 at 4 pm at the Lafayette Town Hall Youth in Cloverbuds and the Foods & Nutrition are welcome to participate!

Registration is open until April 21 and only one entry is allowed per exhibitor. Judging will be by age ranges and have scheduled judging to safely conduct the event in 2021. Please note: use of the kitchen facility will be very limited so please plan accordingly.

If you are interested in sharing your food as this has been traditional practice in past years, please have it pre-packaged to go as no food can be consumed on site.

Registration information can be found here: Rules & Entry Form and registration can be done through Google Forms found here: Foods Revue Registration
